

16 Irregular verbs (past tense)

present    past

run	ran	correr
buy	bought	comprar

What do you do every Saturday?

Every Saturday, I run to HEB and buy some milk. (present)

What did you do yesterday?

Yesterday, I ran to HEB and bought some milk. (past)

---

present    past

go	went	ir
drink	drank	beber

What do you do every Saturday?

Every Saturday, I go to HEB and drink some soda. (present)

What did you do yesterday?

Yesterday, I went to HEB and drank some soda. (past)

---

present    past

meet	met	encontrar
eat	ate	comer

What do you do every Saturday?

Every Saturday, I meet my friend and eat a donut. (present)

What did you do yesterday?

Yesterday, I met my friend and ate a donut. (past)

---

present    past

drive	drove	manejar
take	took	tomar

What do you do every Saturday?

Every Saturday, I drive to HEB and take a cart. (present)

What did you do yesterday?

Yesterday, I drove to HEB and took a cart. (past)

present	past
leave	left	salir
fly	flew	volar

What do you do every year?

Every year, I leave Austin and fly to Pittsburgh. (present)

What did you do last year?

Last year, I left Austin and flew to Pittsburgh. (past)

---

present	past
become	became	convertirse
lose	lost	perder

What do you do every Saturday?

Every Saturday, I become confused and lose my keys. (present)

What did you do yesterday?

Yesterday, I became confused and lost my keys. (past)

---

present	past
see	saw	ver
tell	told	decir

What do you do every Saturday?

Every Saturday, I see him and tell him what happened. (present)

What did you do yesterday?

Yesterday, I saw him and told him what happened. (past)

---

present	past
get	got	obtener
read	read*	leer

What do you do every Saturday?

Every Saturday, I get a book and read it. (present)

What did you do yesterday?

Yesterday, I got a book and read* it. (past)

* pronounced like the color red