

Older Ladies by Donnalou Stevens

Well, I ain't 16, not a beauty queen
And my eyes are baggin' and my skin is saggin'
And if that's the reason you don't love me
Then maybe that's not love

Well, I ain't 20 either and I don't care neither
And my hair is gray and I like it that way
And if that's the reason you don't love me
Then maybe that's not love

If you don't think I rock,
Well we ain't gonna roll
If you don't think I hung the moon,
Then my hot just turned to cold.

If you want a younger model,
I wish you well, Sweet Pea
Cuz if you can't see just what you have,
Then you ain't havin' me.

I got cellulite and achin' feet,
and my thighs kinda jiggle when I giggle and wiggle
And if that's the reason you don't love me
Then maybe that's not love

My tummy ain't tucked or liposucked
It's a little poochy, but I'm still Hoochy Koochy
And if that's the reason you don't love me
Then maybe that's not love

See, I'm no longer desperate,
I'll only have a man...
If he has the smarts to see just how HOT that I still am

If you want a younger model,
I wish you well, Sweet Pea
Cuz if you can't see just what you have,
Then you ain't havin' me.

Older Ladies, Older Ladies... are DEVINE!!!!

Well I got a chicken neck...And I love it, by heck
It makes a chicken neck whenever I grin
And if that's the reason you don't love me
Then maybe that's not love

Older Ladies by Donnalou Stevens

I got saggy breasts that droop from my breast
Pert near down all the way to my nest
And if that's the reason you don't love me
Then maybe that's not love

If you don't think I rock,
Well we ain't gonna roll
If you don't think I hung the moon,
Then my hot just turned to cold.

If you want a younger model,
I wish you well, Sweet Pea
Cuz if you can't see just what you have,
Then you ain't gettin' me.

Older Ladies, Older Ladies... are DEVINE!!!!
Older Ladies, Older Ladies...
What are we ladies?
We're DEVINE!!!!
